Samui has more to offer than just its beautiful beaches, clear water and gorgeous scenery. It also has an impressive tropical forest and a seasonal fruit orchard that is yours to explore. This adventurous eco-safari will introduce you to the 'other side' of Samui. Travel in a 4-wheel-drive vehicle passing the local villages where mostly they are fisherman and farmers. Learn about the coconut—the nut that is the heart of the island's original industry. Entering the safari park, you'll leave the vehicle and switch to an entirely different and rather unusual mode of transportation—you will travel through the tropical jungle of Samui on theback of an elephant. Later, watch the adorable baby elephant show. Watch in delight as a trained monkeyplucks a nut from high atop a coconut tree. Just in the same compound, step inside a local restaurant in the camp area for lunch; then, visit a rubber plantation to see how the farmers tap the tree for sap, and how it is transformed into sheets of rubber. Finally, enjoy free time in the main town to shop before returning to the ship.

Notes:

Minimum age is 6 years. Restrictions apply for pregnant women. Wear comfortable shoes.

Today is all about kicking back for some sea, sun and fun. Head for one Samui’s premier resorts hotels on Chaweng Beach. Here you will have the chance to relax, soaking up the sun on one of the island’s top beaches and its fine white powdery sand—a great way to spend the day in this tropical paradise. Cool off with a tropical beverage (at your own expense) and lunch is included. Beach chairs and umbrellas are provided.

Notes:

Club music is usually played in the background at the resort. Minimum age is 2 years.

Koh Samui's fascinating culture and unique architecture captivate many visitors from all over the world. Some of the most famous landmarks on this island include a number of wats, or temples. This half-day tour takes you to explore the most prominent Buddhist temples. Board an air-conditioned vehicle and set off on the approximately 30-minute drive to Wat Kunaram—home to its own Buddhist miracle. A special building here holds the mummified corpse of its most famous monk, who died while sitting in meditation. The monk's body is housed in a glass coffin. Then, visit Wat Khao Hua Jook—a beautiful temple (also known as a stupa) sitting atop hilly terrain. This awe-inspiring temple overlooks the gorgeous coastline and verdant valleys of Koh Samui. Back in the vehicle, head to Wat Plai Laem—once part of the Big Buddha Temple. Wat Plai Laem is home to a superb statue of Kwan Yin (or Guanjin)—the 18-armed Buddhist avatar of Mercy. The temple is surrounded by a lake stocked with fish. You will be given a bag of food to feed the fish. Finally, visit the huge Seated Buddha, built in 1972. Phra Yai (Big Buddha) sits proudly on the top of a rocky islet off the northeast coast of the island. You'll stop to view this monumental landmark, and the small temple complex that surrounds it, en route back to the pier.

Board an air-conditioned vehicle at Nathon Pier and set off on a short drive to visit the local market. The market offers an incredible range of some of the finest and freshest seafood that can be found on the island of Koh Samui. Then, head to the Hin Lad Waterfall for a half-hour hike into the Samui Jungle. Hin Lad Waterfall is one of the most beautiful waterfalls found on the island and is located just south of Nathon. Enjoy a swim in the mountain fresh water to cool off before a delicious seafood lunch is served at a local restaurant.

Notes:

The waterfall hike through the jungle is strenuous and is on an unimproved trail with uneven ground. Water flow at the waterfall varies seasonally. Wear your swimsuit under your clothing; bring a towel, sunscreen and a hat. Minimum age is 6 years.
