Tour Descriptions for Willemstad, Curacao

COASTAL KAYAK & SNORKELING

Willemstad, Curacao Tour Code: WIL_26

Today you can experience Curacao in a very special way. No motors or huge groups of people – just kayaking, snorkeling, nature and the open Caribbean waters! Departing from the pier, you'll be transferred to your kayaking stop. Once you've been briefed by your guide, you're ready for your kayaking adventure. First you'll travel to an old pier where you'll be amazed at how the sun changes the color of the sea – a beauty that is unique to the Caribbean. If you look carefully, you may even be able to spot red coral under the water.

You'll pass by Fort Beekenburg, a well-preserved fort, which was originally built in 1703 to protect the inner bay. You will also see an old typical manor estate known as the Quarantine House. Next, you'll head to Doctor's Bay for your snorkeling experience. You'll get a glimpse into the underwater world and may also see a shipwrecked tugboat that all types of fish call home. This is the #1 snorkeling spot in Curacao.

Note: Participants must be at least 12 years of age. Maximum combined weight is 396 lbs. for 2 people. Normal physical condition required, not recommended for guests with heart condition or back problems.

CURACAO YACHT LAGOON TOUR

Willemstad, Curacao Tour Code: WIL_27

A 30 minute transfer will take you from the pier to your waiting boat. Stepping aboard the 50 foot, 2 deck luxury yacht, your Captain and crew will welcome you and look after you during your cruise. Sunbathe or sit back with a drink, while enjoying the scenic surroundings of the Spanish Water Lagoon. Here you'll see some of Curacao's most beautiful houses, luxurious yachts, small islands, mangroves and Table Mountain. During your 3 1/4 hour cruise, a stop will be made at one of the islands beautiful beaches so that you can have a quick splash in the sparkling blue water.

The next stop will be at one of Curacao's best snorkeling sites - a tugboat shipwreck, located on the protected southeast side of Caracas Bay. The tugboat, which sank 25 years ago, is home to a wide array of marine life. It is common to see colorful corals, morays, scorpion fish, lobsters, and schools of tropical fish during your approximately 45 minutes of snorkeling on your own with the included snorkel gear. Your tour also includes snacks such as watermelon, chips, cheese, pineapple, soda, water and fruit punch. We recommend a hat, sunglasses and non-oil sunscreen. You will be required to wear a life-jacket while snorkeling.

Note: Participants must be at least 4 years of age. Those with conditions such as asthma, heart conditions, or other medical conditions may not be able to participate in the snorkeling session.

HATO CAVES & CITY CENTER

Willemstad, Curacao Tour Code: WIL_29

Discover two highlights of Curacao, the Hato Caves and the historic city center of Willemstad, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. After a short drive, you'll arrive at the impressive Hato Caves. It is home to beautiful limestone formations, the famous Madonna statue and a colony of seldom seen long nose fruit bats. A small path will lead you to the pre historic Indian wall paintings. The variety of stalagmites and stalactites are impressive. It is fun to join the guide in recognizing animals or figures in the various stone formations. Relax on the drive back to the city, for your walking tour.

First you'll visit the Curacao marketplace where the locals shop for food and ingredients for their home cooked meals. You'll also pass by the floating fruit and vegetable market which are Venezuelan schooners selling products from their boats. On the way to Fort Amsterdam, home to the Governor of Netherland Antilles, you'll pass the beautifully colored, picture perfect merchant houses on the quay of the harbor entrance. The last part of you walk will be to cross the floating bridge that connects both sides of the city. If the bridge is open, due to ship traffic, ferries will be used instead. Your guide will escort you back to the ship, right through historic Rif Fort. This area offers upscale shopping, dining and entertainment centers and you're able to spend time here at your leisure.

Note: Participants should be able to walk sloping surfaces, steps and inclines and extended periods of standing. There are 50 steps to climb at the Hato Caves. We recommend you wear comfortable walking shoes.
