Tour Descriptions for Acapulco, Mexico

ACAPULCO CITY WITH CLIFF DIVERS

Acapulco, Mexico Tour Code: ACA_01

Travel along the coastline while you learn about the history and culture of Acapulco. Stop at El Mirador, above La Quebrada to enjoy a light snack and a drink. Here, you can admire the world-famous cliff divers as well as a typical Mexican folkloric show. From a vantage point near Las Brisas Hotel, marvel at the incredible beauty of the panoramic landscape and the bays of Acapulco and Puerto Marques. Continue to the outskirts of town and pass by one of the most impressive hotels in the Acapulco Diamante hotel zone, the Acapulco Princess Hotel, constructed to resemble an Aztec Pyramid.

Note: There are approximately 70 steps at La Quebrada to see the cliff divers. Physically challenged guests can enjoy the show from a special terrace.

HISTORICAL, TRADITIONAL & PICTURESQUE

Acapulco, Mexico Tour Code: ACA_02

Drive through the old part of town and visit the Hotel Los Flamingos, once called the refuge of the Hollywood gang of the 1950s. Next, visit the Acapulco Historical Museum located inside the Fort of San Diego. The present structure was rebuilt on the ruins of the former fort, which was destroyed in an earthquake. Visit one of Acapulco's landmarks, the Chapel of Peace. This chapel is beyond doubt a place of serenity and peace, located on one of the most exclusive residential areas in Mexico - Las Brisas.

Here you'll enjoy a breathtaking panoramic view of the bay and of Roqueta Island. A 20 minute stop will also be made for those wishing to shop. At La Quebrada, admire the world-famous high cliff divers performance.

Note: There is an approximately 20 degree inclined path to access the Chapel of Peace and approximately 70 steps at the cliff diver's show.

ENDANGERED BABY SEA TURTLES & CITY DRIVE

Acapulco, Mexico Tour Code: ACA_14

Take a scenic ride through downtown Acapulco and along the coast, heading south. About 20 miles away, on a tranquil beach, is the Sea Turtle Rescue Center. Operated by a local environmentalist, the center works to improve the chances of survival for the endangered species of Golfina sea turtles. Learn how the program works and see the baby turtles in various stages of development, from their eggs to the holding tanks where the hatchlings are ready to return to the sea.

Walk down to the shoreline where the turtles will be named before they are released into the water. The number of turtles that are ready for release may not always match the number of participants. A short shopping stop will be made on the way back to your ship.

Note: We recommend that you wear comfortable walking shoes and light-colored, loose fitting clothes. Bring sunscreen, a hat and insect repellent.

ACAPULCO CLIFF DIVERS & SAN DIEGO FORT

Acapulco, Mexico Tour Code: ACA_61

Visit the San Diego Fort, once the most important Spanish fortress on the Pacific coast and today is home to the Acapulco Historic Museum. You'll learn about the history of the city, the important role the fortress played and the culture of early inhabitants.

You'll also visit the cliffside at La Quebrada cove and witness a performance presented by the world famous cliff divers of Acapulco. Using skill and experience, these divers have to time the beginning of their dive so that the waters in the cove are deep enough when they hit them. The breathtaking highlight of the show will be when the master diver plunges headlong over 130 feet into the ocean waters below from the uppermost level of the jagged cliff.

Note: There are approximately 70 steps at La Quebrada to see the cliff divers. Physically challenged guests can enjoy the show from a special terrace.
