OCEAN RAFT WILDLIFE ADVENTURE

Skagway, Alaska Tour Code: SGY_94

Get ready for an intimate boating adventure through the Lynn Canal, North America's longest and deepest fjord! You'll get extra-close to the shore while exploring hidden coves, waterfalls, beaches and abundant wildlife on this fun filled, two hour sightseeing tour. Your knowledgeable Captain will make multiple stops for photo opportunities and wildlife sightings, while providing a colorful narrative throughout the tour. Keep your eyes open for whales, eagles, seals, sea lions, mountain goats and sea birds as you explore the rugged wilderness of this majestic fjord. On occasion the Captain will turn the engines off, allowing you to soak in the sights, sounds and smells of this pristine Alaska wilderness.

Climb aboard the same type of boat used by U.S. Navy Seals and Coast Guard rescue teams. With its deep V hull surrounded by inflatable tubes this boat is designed to deliver a smooth ride in any ocean condition. You'll be provided with a Coast Guard approved exposure suit to wear over your own clothing, which will keep you warm and dry throughout your adventure. You will also be provided with goggles, gloves, and hats if the weather requires them. You'll straddle the custom shock-absorbing seats as you race by the steep rock walls of this spectacular fjord. This adrenaline-packed excursion covers more of Alaska's rugged wilderness in less time, allowing you to spend the rest of your day exploring the historic gold rush town of Skagway.

Note: Participants must be at least 10 years of age and weigh no more than 350 lbs. No pre-existing neck or back injuries, heart problems or pregnant women.

CHILKOOT TRAIL HIKE & FLOAT

Skagway, Alaska Tour Code: SGY_24

Join this small group tour for a scenic two mile hike on the Chilkoot Trail, which winds through a lush rainforest and board a raft for a tranquil, scenic float back to historic Dyea. After a safety orientation, board a van and drive through Skagway to the backcountry deep in the heart of the Dyea Valley. You'll travel to the historic town of Dyea to hike the first two scenic miles of the Chilkoot Trail, the centerpiece of gold rush history in Skagway.

Now a tranquil place of incredible beauty, the trail winds through a lush rainforest alive with birds, animals and wildflowers. Your route climbs and descends 350 feet over Saintry Hill. Along the way, your guide will share information about the natural history and Klondike folklore with you. Photo opportunities abound as you retrace the footsteps of the gold-hungry stampeders who forged this route 100 years ago.

Arrive at the banks of the Taiya River, where your 18-foot raft awaits for the scenic float back to Dyea. The forest gives way to fields of beach greens and wild iris, and the granite walls of the fjords rise steeply to the snow-capped peaks and hanging glaciers. Enjoy a riverside snack of homemade cookies and a hot beverage before returning by van on the 30-minute drive to Skagway. This VIP experience is designed for smaller groups and limited to 10 guests.

Note: Participants must be at least 7 years of age, be in good physical condition and able to hike approximately 2 miles with an elevation gain and descent of 350 feet. We recommend you dress in layers. The float trip has no white water and can be enjoyed by anyone.

EAGLE PRESERVE FLOAT

Skagway, Alaska Tour Code: SGY_29

A high speed catamaran to Haines, a rafting adventure in the Chilkat Bald Eagle Reserve and a riverside picnic make this a wildlife tour of a lifetime. Your tour begins as you board a catamaran for a scenic 45 minute cruise along North America's longest and deepest fjord to Haines. Along the way, you'll witness spectacular views of waterfalls and ice sculpted peaks, as your guide points out marine wildlife. Upon arrival in Haines, you'll board a motorcoach for a relaxing 40 minute drive up the Haines Highway, a National Scenic Byway, to the Chilkat Bald Eagle Preserve. You'll see historic Haines and Fort William H. Seward on this narrated drive. Watch for moose and swans in the marshlands as you head up the Chilkat River Valley.

At the preserve, experienced guides await to begin your rafting adventure (not whitewater). You'll float silently down the river aboard 18' inflatable rafts — the best way to observe eagles drawn to feed on the plentiful salmon. Bears and wolves are also frequent guests at the feast. You'll float past the native village of Klukwan, where the Tlingit people have lived for centuries on the bounty of this beautiful preserve. After your float, you'll enjoy a riverside picnic. Your tour concludes with a return cruise aboard the catamaran back to Skagway. You'll leave with a myriad of unforgettable memories of the day.

Note: Participants must be at least 7 years of age and weigh no more than 325 lbs. Ponchos and boots are provided at the site. Guests must be in good health and able to walk over loose gravel and dry river delta to board the rafts.

CHILKOOT HORSEBACK ADVENTURE

Skagway, Alaska Tour Code: SGY_09

Discover Alaska's rugged beauty just as the original stampedeers did, on horseback! Your adventure begins with a coastal drive from historic downtown Skagway to a ranch in Dyea, as your guide entertains you with stories from past and present. Upon arrival your guide will share safety information with you before matching you up with your horse. Your ride will take you through the Klondike Gold Rush National Historical Park for one hour and forty five minutes, while your guide shares stories of the past. Just a century ago this was a boomtown of 10,000 stampedeers in this very same rainforest!

Ride out of the forest and onto the Dyea tidal flats, surrounded by snow-capped mountains and the shore of Lynn Canal. Discover why the locals come here to view wildlife such as eagles, spawning salmon, and occasionally bears. This breathtaking location is the perfect opportunity for photos of Alaskan vistas. After the ride, kick back with your guides to enjoy complimentary refreshments of salmon pate and crackers.

Note: Participants must be at least 4' 10" in height. Maximum weight allowed is 250 lbs.

HISTORICAL CITY, GOLD CAMP & SALMON BAKE

Skagway, Alaska Tour Code: SGY_06

Start your tour in Skagway's historic downtown area as your guide points out places of interest and regales you with tales of the famous and foolhardy. Wind through streets lined with wooden boardwalks and false fronted buildings en route to Scenic Overlook, Gold Rush Cemetery and Liarsville. Enjoy a dining experience you'll never forget at the Liarsville Gold Rush Trail Camp. Your meal is prepared over an open wood fire using recipes from 1898. Sit down for freshly grilled filet of wild Alaskan salmon, baked chicken, rice pilaf, a variety of salads, baked beans, cornbread, coffee, lemonade and dessert.

After your meal gather at the Liarsville Hippodrome where a cast of sourdoughs and dance hall girls will dazzle you with melodrama, recite Robert Service poetry and teach you the art of gold panning. You're guaranteed to find gold in every pan! Once you've made your fortune, take time to wander through the camp and visit the general store, saloon, bordello and laundry tents to view the antiques and vintage clothing left behind. Be sure to have your picture taken with one of the dance hall girls or the camp mascot, a lovable husky.

GOLDEN GLASSBLOWING EXPERIENCE

Skagway, Alaska Tour Code: SGY_55

Your tour begins as you board your motorcoach for a narrated tour of Skagway en route to Jewell Gardens, a tranquil oasis of organic flowers and plants. Upon your arrival, your guide will offer a private orientation to this spectacular northern show garden and the hot shop, where you'll learn the ancient art of working with molten glass. You'll create the ultimate Alaska memento, a handmade ornament to float in your garden pond, or hang in a window or on a Christmas tree. In the spirit of the Gold Rush, you'll have the opportunity to incorporate 24K gold for dazzling effect. Your work of art can be shipped anywhere in the world, compliments of Jewell Gardens.

Next, you'll embark on a guided glass gallery tour of hand-blown works, followed by tea service, lunch or light dinner (depending on time of day) made with fresh ingredients from the garden, and a glass of beer or wine. After a bite to eat, you're free to wander the gardens, gallery and shop. Your tour concludes with a scenic drive back to the pier.

ART BY FIRE, GARDENS & GLASS

Enjoy a ride through Skagway, during which you'll learn about the town's colorful history as the 1890's gateway to the Klondike gold rush. You'll visit Jewell Gardens, the first Certified Organic show garden in the United States. The garden has hundreds of tulips and lilacs during the early season, with giant delphiniums in midsummer and an abundance of flowers and produce during the fall harvest.

Continue into the Glassworks Theater and watch as inspired artists demonstrate and magically create pieces of art from molten glass, as they explain the process. Inspired by Dale Chihuly, you'll also see the Lights Out demonstration, where artists will create a special piece in the dark, blowing glass with only the illumination of hot molten glass.

During the demonstration enjoy a glass of wine or cold beer, served with appetizers prepared by the resident chef, using fresh ingredients from the garden. You'll be treated to a guided gallery tour of local hand-blown glass before returning to your ship.
