Agadir Souk & Medina of Ancient Taroudant - AG12

market of SOUK AL HAD. We depart to the city which is situated off the beaten track, perhaps explaining why royal visitors and politicians visit the area regularly. Today Taroudant is fondly called the "Grandmother of Marrakech" and it retains the feel of a small market town on the 'caravan route'. It is a quaint and charming town that resembles Marrakech with its surrounding ramparts.

See the splendors of Agadir, plus explore the souk and medina of Taroudant, a historic market town along the "caravan route." Along your way to Agadir's Kasbah, renowned for its breathtaking view over an almost endless beach. Then discover Taroudant, once the capital of the Saadi Dynasty. Stop for photos at the city ramparts, heading through the walls to the medina and souk, the open-air marketplace known for its jewelry and carpets.

Highlights:

- Kasbah: A Kasbah is an older quarter of a city and is often where the citadel is located.
- Taroudant: The first sultan of the Saadi Dynasty built the city walls, great mosque and minaret in 1528.
- Medina: A medina is walled, pedestrian-only section of a city, featuring narrow, maze-like streets, fountains, palaces and mosques.

What to Bring:

- SeaPass card and photo identification
- Camera
- Cash/credit cards

What to Wear:

- Hat and sunglasses
- Walking shoes

Important Notes:

- Consider physical fitness and medical history when selecting tour.
- Guests with cardiac conditions, asthma, diabetes, epilepsy, other heart or respiratory conditions or any other medical condition must take particular caution when selecting a tour categorized as strenuous.
- Guests must consult with their physician before engaging in any activity that may be strenuous for them.

Magical Marrakech with Folkloric Show & Lunch - AG11

Depart to the city of Marrakech. Upon arrival in Marrakech; we begin our tour to The Bahia Palace. Later, you will be transferred to a traditional Moroccan restaurant for lunch with the folkloric show and belly dancer performance. You continue your tour to Medersa Ben Youssef, one of the jewels of Marrakech. We all end up at the Djemâa el Fna square, a multitude of street-artists, etc. Enjoy your Moroccan tea. After an exciting and eventful day we return to Agadir.

Panoramic Agadir City Drive - AG06

We disembark the ship and depart by coach to an ancient Kasbah, for a photo stop. A Kasbah is an older or native quarter of a city often in which the citadel is located. Our next stop is the souk where one can hone one's bartering skills by purchasing local mementos. This is a free market system where the price paid is the one offered or agreed, a true negotiator's delight. Our guide will give us an orientation and prepare us for the great interactive experience. We return to the ship.

See the splendors of Agadir on a scenic 2.5-hour drive around the city. As you make your way to the ancient Kasbah, see the enormous Arabic inscription on the hill, which translates to "God, Country, King." Stop for photos at the Kasbah, the old quarter of the city where you'll find the citadel. Then it's on to the Souk El Had, the open-air marketplace where you can hone your bartering skills while shopping for treasures.

Highlights:

- Hillside inscriptions: At night, the Arabic inscriptions (which translate to "God, Country, King") are illuminated, along with the fortress walls.
- Kasbah: A Kasbah is an older or native quarter of a city and is often where the citadel is located.
- Souk: A souk is an open-air marketplace, like the bazaars in Persia. Agadir's souk is the largest in the region.
