Kuala Lumpur (Port Kelang), Malaysia

From a lawless huddle of kampongs in the trackless jungle, Kuala Lumpur, the capital city has grown into a fascinating metropolis. Steel and glass towers stand side by side with graceful stone colonial buildings and mosques adorned with slender minarets. The commercial, financial, economic and cultural heart of Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur (better known as KL), is a melting pot. Its population of 1.6 million is comprised of Malays, Chinese, Indians, and a mix of different cultures including Eurasians and others.

Kuala Lumpur is located at the confluence of the Klang and Gombek Rivers. The city was founded in the 1850s as a tin mining outpost.

Points of Interest

1 National Museum/Lake Gardens

Celebrate Malay culture and historical heritage within the impressive collections of the National Museum, then relax in the Lake Gardens, encompassing the National Monument, Orchid and Hibiscus Gardens, Butterfly, Deer and Bird Parks.

2 Petronas Twin Towers

Reaching over 1,400 feet into the air, this architectural wonder is the world's tallest twin towers. A skybridge rising 557 feet above street level connects the two at the 41 and 42 levels.

3 Kuala Lumpur Tower

A telecommunications and broadcasting tower that also features shops, an open-air amphitheater, an observation deck, and a revolving restaurant that offers panoramic view of the city.

4 Merdeka (Independence) Square

Originally the cricket field for the Royal Selangor Club, today the site includes the Sultan Abdul Samad Building, St. Mary's Anglican Cathedral and the former National History Museum. It was the site of the August 31, 1957 proclamation declaring Malaysia's independence from Britain.

5 Royal Selangor Club

Founded in 1884 as a cricket club and social gathering place for members of the British community.

6 Jamek Mosque

Set in a tranquil grove of palm trees where the Gombak and Klang rivers meet, Kuala Lumpur's oldest mosque was built on the site of the city's first Malay burial ground.

7 Home Visit

Here's a splendid opportunity to learn about Malay traditions and customs on a visit to meet a typical Malay family in their home. An English interpreter is on hand as you enjoy refreshments and cakes.

8 Batu Caves

One of the most popular Hindu shrines outside of India, this sacred temple complex is full of statues and long-tailed macaque monkeys that greet you as you climb the 272 steps leading to the temple cave.
