Nice, France

Nice is one of the oldest cities in the Western Mediterranean - evidence suggests that the area was inhabited for millennia before the Greeks established a colony in 350 B.C. The city is also the fifth largest metropolis in France. Nice has been a beloved vacation destination since the 18th century, when British aristocracy first toured the Baie des Anges. The city and the Cote d'Azur also proved a lure to painters in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Matisse, Chagall, and Picasso were all drawn by the Cote's superb light and vivid colors. Stroll along the Promenade des Anglais, pass by the famous pink Hotel Negresco or wander among the vendors at the colorful flower and grocery market in the Cours Selaya. Or travel the Corniche - the Cote d'Azur awaits. To the east is fabled Monaco, while to the west is glamorous Cannes, home to the world's most celebrated film festival.

Points of Interest

1 St. Nicholas Cathedral

This 1875 church was built on the site of a 13th century church. Located in the heart of the old city, it's the final resting place of Princess Grace and Prince Rainier of Monaco.

2 Prince's Palace

Home to the Prince, the palace began as a fortress built by the Genoese in 1215. Visit the Throne Room, which has hosted important ceremonies since the 16th century, and the ornate state apartments.

3 Old Monaco

Twisting lanes and vaulted passageways make up this quaint section which dates back to the 14th century. Walking the narrow lanes is like being transported back in time and yet modern life abounds.

4 Monte Carlo and Casino

Monte Carlo is one of the world's supreme spots for people watching. You'll visit the legendary Casino designed by Charles Garnier in 1878 and offers the atmosphere you'd expect in a James Bond film.

5 Old Town Nice

This jewel of the French Riviera hosts stunning sites such as the Promenade des Anglais that hugs the bay and is perfect for people-watching.

6 Cannes

Cannes' motto is "Life is a festival." Enjoy its lively nightlife, luxurious beaches, and old quarter probably best known as Le Suquet; the climbing, winding cobbled lane lined with charming local restaurants.

7 Eze

This charming medieval village is perched like an eagle's nest on a narrow rocky peak overlooking the Mediterranean sea. Stroll the cobbled streets lined with pink tiled roofed stone houses and artist galleries.

8 Menton

This charming year-round resort boasts beautiful beaches and claims to possess the warmest climate on the Riviera. Here also stands a stylish Museum dedicated to Jean Cocteau. It was opened on the sea-front in 2011 and displays the extensive Séverin Wunderman collection.
