Ajaccio Scenic Tour - AJ04

Enjoy a panoramic drive and a walking tour through Ajaccio, the Corsican town where Napoleon Bonaparte was born. Your tour begins with a ride along the main street of the Imperial City, the Cours Napoleon. Pass St. Roch Church and the English Quarter on your way to Cours Grandval. After a short stop at the Austerlitz Square and Iles Sanguinaires viewpoint, you'll enjoy a scenic stroll along the narrow, picturesque streets of old Ajaccio. Note: Interior visits are not included in this tour. This tour involves 1 ½ hours of walking over uneven pavement and grounds and is not recommended for passengers with walking difficulties.

Discover the birthplace of Napoleon Bonaparte via motor coach before setting out on foot through the quaint streets of Ajaccio, past historic landmarks and monuments. Journey in the comfort of a coach throughout Corsica's capital city, and see where French military and political leader Bonaparte was born in 1769. Stroll on foot alongside a knowledgeable guide, admiring stunning architecture and viewing statues honoring the famous general. Roam around bustling squares, charming streets and waterfront promenade.

Highlights:

- Scenic Drive: See where famous French military leader Napoleon Bonaparte was born while traveling in a comfortable motor coach.
- Guided Walking Tour: Admire a mixture of architecture and view historical monuments while traveling on foot alongside an informative guide.
