Accessible Beaches - FC36

This excursion makes it easy for those with limited mobility to discover the war-era history of Normandy. You'll drive through the scenic Peninsula of Cotentin on your way to the American Cemetery in the village of Saint Laurent. Then, it's on to Omaha Beach, site of the legendary D-Day invasion. You'll also visit Sainte Mere Eglise, where a church damaged during the battle for Normandy, as American forces fought to dislodge Nazi snipers from the belfry.

Learn about the legendary World War II D-Day invasion on a guided tour of the Normandy beaches in the comfort of a wheelchair-accessible motor coach. Travel past the French coastline where land mines and other dangerous obstacles were once lodged during the war. View memorial statues and the Walls of the Missing at the Normandy American Cemetery. View somber Omaha Beach, entry point of the attack, and Sainte-Mère-Église chapel, with its memorial to fallen paratroopers.

Highlights:

- Scenic Drive: Travel via wheelchair-accessible coach and see the Normandy beaches that once housed land mines during World War II.
- American Cemetery: View memorial statues, a reflecting pool, the Walls of the Missing, and graves of more than 9,300 soldiers.
- D-Day Landmarks: See somber Omaha Beach, entry point of the amphibious assault, and visit the paratrooper memorial at Sainte-Mère-Église chapel.

Beaches - FC23

It's been memorialized in classic movies and documented in countless books, but there's nothing like seeing Omaha Beach in person. This is where one of the most brutal battles in WWII was waged and where allied victory was all but secured. You'll stand where history was written. You'll also visit the American Cemetery and Memorial in Cotentin, a tribute and final resting place to those who gave their lives in the name of freedom.

Hear somber first-hand accounts of the fabled World War II D-Day invasion as you join a tour of the Normandy beaches and nearby American Cemetery. Visit the French coastline where land mines and other wartime obstacles were once lodged during World War II. See present-day remnants of German bunkers and local war monuments. View memorial statues and the Walls of the Missing at the Normandy American Cemetery, where more than 9,300 soldiers rest in peace.

Highlights:

- Normandy Beaches: See the French coastline that once housed land mines and wartime obstacles during World War II.
- D-Day: Hear tales of the 1944 Allied attack, which was the largest amphibious invasion to ever occur in history.
- American Cemetery: View memorial statues, a reflecting pool, the Walls of the Missing, and graves of more than 9,300 soldiers.

Mont Saint Michel With Lunch - FC03

Mont Saint Michel is one of the greatest religious buildings in Europe with its abbey at the summit of a huge rock 250 ft above the sea. Completing this 30-minute walk, you will view the Abbey Church whose spire soars more than 500 feet. The Abbey is a masterpiece of Norman architecture. Inside you'll discover the ways of the monks by visiting their famous dining hall, and the beautiful gothic cloister, which appears to be suspended between sky and sea. After the guided portion of the tour, you will have free time in the charming village of Mont Saint Michel to explore the twisted passageways, old houses, and shops.

Explore one of France's most recognizable landmarks on a guided tour of the Mont Saint Michel abbey before enjoying lunch and free time to roam. Travel on foot to the elevated Norman Benedictine monastery, where you can admire Romanesque architecture and the churches soaring spires. Savor a tasty French meal in the famous dining hall where fervent monks gather. Wander around the medieval town independently, where you can meander through winding streets and souvenir shop.

Highlights:

- Mont Saint Michel: Behold one of France's most recognizable landmarks, a hilltop Norman Benedictine abbey with Romanesque spires and architecture.
- Lunch: Enjoy a delectable French meal in the famous dining hall of the monastery where ardent monks gather for worship.
- Free Time: Explore the medieval town at your leisure, roam narrow winding streets, see historic homes, or shop for souvenirs.

Normandy Gardens - FC15

On this tour, you'll experience two very different castles in the French countryside. First, stroll the endless botanical gardens at Vauville Castle. This modern wonder was created in 1947 and is home to more than 500 varieties of plants and flowers native to the southern hemisphere. Then, enjoy an exterior visit of the 16th-century Nacqueville Castle. Set in an old English park, its lavish gardens are famous for colorful rhododendrons, azaleas, and arum lilies that run along the riverside. Guests must be able to walk approximately 1.5 miles over uneven surfaces and 40/50 steps.

Delight in Cherbourg's enthralling heritage and natural splendors as you tour two picturesque Normand castles and enjoy roaming around their lush botanical gardens. Meander around the private subtropical grounds of Vauville Castle, where you can view 900 species of plants from the Southern Hemisphere, including eucalyptus and bamboo, while relishing spectacular Atlantic Ocean vistas. Admire the romantic topiaries and 19th-century fairytale charm of Nacqueville Castle, with its colorful azaleas, giant gunnera, and picturesque riverfront park.

Highlights:

- Vauville Castle: Tour private subtropical grounds, see the granite bird bath, and explore the stunning chateau while overlooking the sea.
- Nacqueville Castle: Delight in the 19th-century fairytale charm of the estate and its picturesque riverside park surrounded by forest.
- Botanical Gardens: See approximately 900 species of plants at Vauville Castle before admiring Nacqueville's colorful azaleas and giant gunnera.
