

Ports & Excursions

Seville (Cadiz), Spain

Mention Spain and the images that inevitably spring to mind are images of Andalusia - shadows falling across the bullring, the staccato rhythms of flamenco, the waft of orange blossoms from a Moorish garden. Cadiz is your gateway to this storied land and the city of Seville. Visit Seville's massive Alcazar fortress, modeled on the legendary Alhambra Palace of Granada. See the city's cathedral, a 15th-century Gothic masterwork that boasts a Moorish patio, fountain and minaret. Seville is also the legendary home of Don Juan, Bizet's Carmen and Rossini's Barber of Seville.

Cadiz is one of Europe's oldest inhabited cities, dating from 1100 B.C., and your gateway to Seville and Andalusia.

Points of Interest

1 Alcazar

This historic royal palace began as a Moorish fortress in 913. Over time it became a stunning fusion of Spanish Christian and Moorish architecture with a number of spectacular gardens and fountains.

2 Cathedral of Seville

The 15th century cathedral is the third largest church in Europe. Inside you'll find magnificent architectural details and masterpieces. Adjacent is the 12th century Moorish tower, "La Giralda." ? an imposing 322 foot tower which was formerly a Moorish-style minaret from the mosque that stood on the same site.

3 Barrio de Santa Cruz

Originally the Old Jewish Quarter, this picturesque neighborhood is at the center of Seville's historic district where the narrow, winding streets and tree-shaded plazas evoke another time.

4 Cadiz Town Hall

Overlooking Plaza San Juan de Dios, the Town Hall is one of the most important buildings in the city. Dating back to 1799, its famous bell tower chimes to the tune of Manuel de Falla.

5 Sherry Bodega

The Cadiz Province is famous for its sherry. Here you will have the opportunity to try the fine wines made in one of the most important sherry bodegas in the city.

6 Royal Andalusian School of Equestrian Art

This is the prestigious home and training facility of the famed "dancing stallions." You can tour the grounds of this 19th century palace in addition to seeing some superb riding demonstrations.

7 Arcos de la Frontera

Designated a national historic and cultural monument in 1962, Arcos de Frontera is one of the most beautiful Moorish white villages in Spain, perched 185m above sea level on a sandstone ridge with magnificent views of the local countryside.

8 Los Alburejos Farm

Tucked in the heart of the Medina Sidonia countryside, this magnificent early 19th century estate is the home of thoroughbred Andalusian horses.
