A Tale of Two Cities - BE23

This fascinating half-day tour will focus on the contrast between the ancient Mayan city of Altun Ha and the modern day Belize City. Altun Ha thrived as a trading post to the Mayan World during the Post Classic and Classic periods. Belize City is home to approximately 35% of the country's population and remains the commercial capital of the country.

Enjoy a historical half day tour of two diverse cities. Begin by immersing yourself in 1,000 years of Mayan influence in the city of Altun Ha, an archaeological site famous for a jade carving of the Sun God "Kinich Ahau." Cross over to the commercial capital of Belize and drive by such historical sites as Redbrick St. John's Cathedral and "House of Culture" before concluding your tour with a complimentary drink at the Smoky Mermaid Restaurant and Bar.

Highlights:

- Altun Ha: Compare this ancient city, Maya for Rock Stone Water, with the modern day city of Belize.
- St. John's Cathedral: Drive by the largest Anglican Church in Central America.
- Smoky Mermaid Restaurant and Bar: Enjoy a complimentary beverage and explore the prominent historical landmarks of Belize.
