Bridgetown: Colleton Great House & Sunbury Plantation w/ Transfer

ACTIVITY LEVEL: MODERATE

This tour will take you on a tour of the exquisite collection of beautiful art dating as far back as 1450 A.D. Start with a scenic drive to the northern part of the island to view the Rickwood Art Collection. You will see how the sugar barons lived in 1650, view the art and sculpture collections up to the 1900s, and see the ruins of the slave quarters on one of the island's most important historic sites. You will enjoy refreshments surrounded by unique artifacts. Your next stop before heading to the airport will be Sunbury Plantation House where you will not only enjoy a delicious buffet lunch but also step back in time touring the house and see for yourself how the planters used to live many years ago on a guided tour through this great 300-year-old house. It is magnificently furnished and contains one of the country's superior collections of antiques, china, and silver, as well as a most interesting display of old prints. The cellar, originally used for storing root vegetables grown on the plantation, now houses the Caribbean's finest collection of antique carriages. There is also a fascinating assembly of household items that were once part of everyday domestic life on a plantation. Relax in the refreshing gardens until it is time to depart for the airport.

Please note: Departure flights should be 3:00 P.M. or later, and transfers to the hotels are only applicable for Windstar properties.

Bridgetown: Harrison Cave & Sunbury Plantation Hours with Transfer

ACTIVITY LEVEL: MODERATE

The magnificent Harrison's Cave is truly one of Barbados' natural wonders, a natural phenomenon and probably the only limestone cave to be found in the entire Caribbean. Here, gentle indirect lighting has been cleverly employed to enhance the beauty of this underground wonderland. Actively growing stalactites and stalagmites glisten while the thunderous 40-foot waterfall cascades into a blue-green lake making this an unforgettable experience. Your next stop before heading to the airport or hotel will be Sunbury Plantation House where you will not only enjoy a sumptuous buffet lunch but also a guided tour through this great house built over 300 years ago. It is magnificently furnished and contains one of the country's superior collections of antiques, china, and silver, as well as a most interesting display of old prints. The cellar houses the Caribbean's finest collection of antique carriages. There is also a fascinating assembly of household items that were once part of everyday domestic life on a plantation. You will have time to explore the refreshing gardens and enjoy a delicious lunch before departing.
