Tour Descriptions for Nha Trang, Vietnam

ANCIENT CIVILIZATIONS

Nha Trang, Vietnam Tour Code: NHA_02

Enjoy a scenic drive to Nha Trang, a lovely, serene little town spread out along the length of a beautiful sandy beach, with a backdrop of hills and rocky outcrops. Stop at Long Son Pagoda, founded in the late-19th century, and rebuilt several times since. For those up to the challenge, you'll have an opportunity to climb the 152 stone steps leading to the giant white Buddha seated on a lotus blossom. Walk across the bridge to photograph the abundance of fishing boats moored in the shallow Nha Trang Harbor. These boats are brightly-painted in blue and red, and a very colorful sight indeed. From the harbor, you will continue on to see the PoNagar Cham Towers. The Towers are evidence of the ancient Cham civilization built between the 8th and 12th centuries on a site used for Hindu worship.

In the center of Nha Trang you'll visit the Dam market where you'll find local produce, fruit, vegetables and seafood. After browsing through the market you can shop for souvenirs, then relax and enjoy a refreshing coconut drink at one of Nha Trang's beautiful beachfront cafes. Your tour concludes with a stop at an embroidery workshop. Here, you'll admire the skill and creativity of hundreds of Vietnamese artists crafting their embroidered works of art.

NHA TRANG BY PEDICAB

Nha Trang, Vietnam Tour Code: NHA_03

Nha Trang is one of the largest tourist destinations in Vietnam, and home to the 29th most beautiful bay in the world. With its splendid pine trees and excellent tourist facilities, Tran Phu is considered to be the most stunning street in Nha Trang. On one side you'll find the exquisite ocean; the other side features splendid buildings, hotels and restaurants. Various campsites, famous resorts, a water park and much more are found along the beach.

A short drive takes you to the pedicab park where you begin your guided tour of the downtown area. You'll receive a routing map and a set of headphones to listen to your guide's narrative regarding the sites you'll see. Proceed along the popular downtown streets, and view many of the city highlights; you'll make photo stops at the most important sites along the way. Your tour concludes at the Dam market where you'll find selling of local products, seafood and those important souvenirs. Enjoy some free time to browse at the many stalls.

NHA TRANG'S RURAL LIFE

Nha Trang, Vietnam Tour Code: NHA_04

The scenic drive from downtown Nha Trang to the green countryside is marked by vast rice fields, fruit gardens and majestic mountains on the horizon. Stop at a local temple dedicated to the god believed to bestow good luck on the villagers. Many generations of local ancestors are worshipped here, and the altar is decorated with the candles and incense that symbolize the universe. Here you can also see local people weave floor mats in jute or bananas. Drive along a small village road to enjoy wonderful photo opportunities of the rice fields, mountains, buffaloes and more.

Visit a farmer's house to view how they live, raise domestic animals, cook food, plant fruit, and worship their ancestors. If the local market is still open, you'll have a chance to stop for photos.

Stop at a local coffee shop to enjoy a coconut drink and sample some locally-grown tropical fruit before continuing on. Visit a local pagoda where the monks will welcome you, and show you how they live, worship Buddha and train themselves in Buddhist principles. The pagoda has a small orphanage where you can interact with the children who are mostly orphans. Your tour concludes with a visit to a rice paper workshop, where they make rice cakes to sell to locals for their breakfast.

RIVER CAI'S COUNTRYSIDE BY BOAT

Nha Trang, Vietnam Tour Code: NHA_05

Explore the ancient Ponagar Cham Towers, an intriguing complex of temple sand gardens overlooking the Cai River, for a glimpse into the rich mythology and deep spirituality of the Vietnamese culture. The Towers are evidence of the ancient Cham civilization built between the 8th and 12th centuries on a site used for Hindu worship. As a counterpoint to your land-based adventure, enjoy a serene sightseeing cruise along the Cai River. Stop at a riverside clay-oven workshop where you'll visit with a family that produces clay ovens.

At a rural village, you'll take a stroll for a close-up look at how people live and work. You'll visit a farmer's house to view how they live, raise domestic animals, cook food, plant fruit, and worship their ancestors. If the local market is still open, you'll have a chance to stop for photos.
