ALI06 - NOVELDA & WINE TASTING

SOMETHING SPECIAL

Enjoy a pleasant walking tour through the Main Street and narrow "callejuelas" of Alicante for external viewing of some of Alicante's most important monuments including the Town Hall and Con-Cathedral of San Nicolás. Take your camera ready for some nice shots for your memory book before boarding your coach and enjoy a 45-minute coach drive to Novelda, in the south of Valencia region, famous for its vineyards and receiving many awards for their constant search for the quality of its wines. You will soon recognize the Modernist or "Art Nouveau" architectural style as you visit the monastery of Santa María Magdalena, a church designed by a disciple of Antoni Gaudí, a true, artistic masterpiece. After the visit, your second part of the tour will include a visit to the wine cellars and a tasting of 2 kinds of wine. Take your time to buy one or two bottles for your dearest before boarding your coach back to Alicante. Please note: as the tour involves walking on uneven ground, it is not recommended for guests with mobility problems or using a wheelchair. Guests under 18 years old are not admitted to the wine tasting session.
